

- Re-definitions create space
- EC not grown from mission but from a desire to do mission or be relevant— church plant mentality??
- Together they flow in and out

FYT & CMS Partnership to explore what missional youth work and the emerging church can learn from each other

Growing a learning community through a Wiki www.cote.wetpaint.com blogging at www.sundaypapers.org.uk

At its' heart is the intentionality of growing church with young people on the edge as a missionary endeavour and to develop a framework that can facilitate locally grounded and "resource light", expressions of church with any people group.

Discovering experiences of god in existing communities and inviting people to explore these with us as church.

Church on the Edge Missional Ecclesiology

Christiology

Missiology

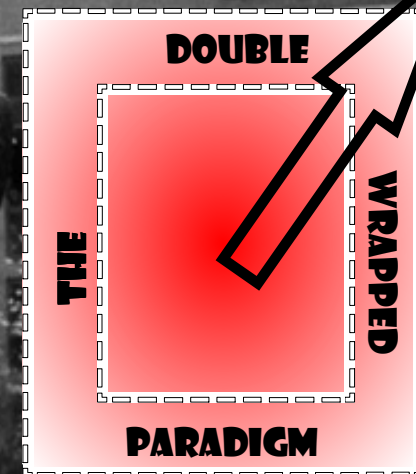

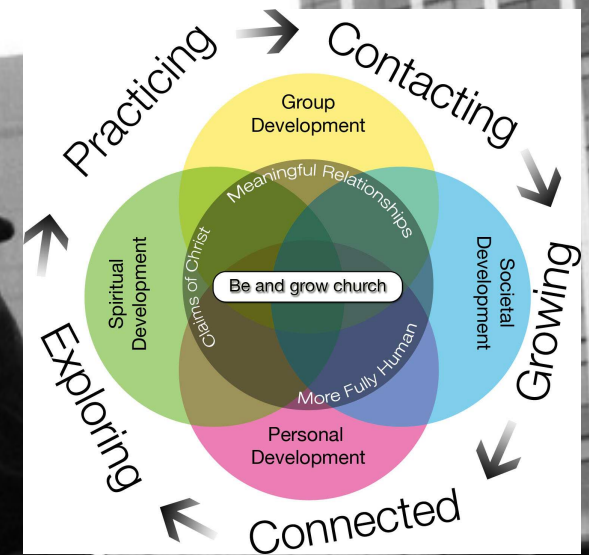

Ecclesiology

Tacking

Helping young people and society become more fully human, by a process of purposeful and deliberate, but informal interactions

Church is :-
 A Mystery
 A Metaphor
 An Organism
 changing as a result of mission

In the beginning was flow & flow was God & flow was with...

"God is about a big purpose in and for the whole of creation. The church has been called into life to be both the means of this mission and a foretaste of where God is inviting all creation to go. Just as its Lord is a mission-shaped God, so the community of God's people exists, not for themselves but for the sake of the work. Mission is therefore not a program or project some people in the Church do from time to time (as in "mission trip", "mission budget" and so on); the church's very nature is to be God's missionary people. We use the word missional to mark this big difference. Mission is not about a project or a budget or a one-off event somewhere; its not even about a sending missionaries. A missional church is a community of God's people who live into the imagination that they are, by their very nature, God's missionary people living as a demonstration of what God plans to do in and for all of creation in Jesus Christ."

Roxburgh and Romanuk -The Missional Leader